A teacher candidate must put forward a formal application for admission to the Teacher Preparation Program if they are pursuing an Education major leading to licensure. Admission to the Teacher Preparation Program is a prerequisite for most upper division (300 and above) Education methods courses.

Once a teacher candidate has met all Criteria for Admission, they will start an application. A teacher candidate will not be able to register for methods classes that require admission to the Teacher Preparation Program until being formally admitted, so it is important to start this process as soon as criteria is met, which is typically one to two semesters prior to enrolling in methods courses.

Applications submitted after August 1st will be considered for admission for the following spring term.

It is the responsibility of the teacher candidate to see that all forms are uploaded into their online TPP Application. All work must be completed and submitted together so forms need to be prepared in advance. The work cannot be saved intermittently so please be mindful as documents are uploaded.
