Student Guide to Course Assignments

In LiveText, a course assignment is posted to the Dashboard and represents a task that the instructor has asked the student to complete. The assignment is posted for a specific course in which LiveText is used. Each assignment has a title and a button that will read Begin Assignment (if the assignment has a red status indicator), Continue Assignment (if the assignment has a yellow status indicator), View Assignment (if the assignment has a yellow status indicator), or View Assessment (if the assignment has a green status indicator). The button you will see is dependent upon the current status of the assignment.

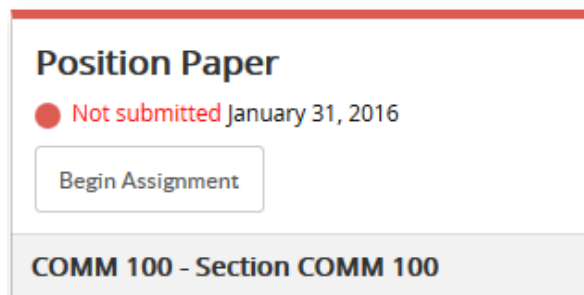

- If the assignment has a red status indicator, then the student has not submitted the assignment and may submit work to the assignment.
- If the assignment has a yellow status indicator, then status is awaiting assessment and the student is either awaiting the instructor's assessment.
- If the assignment has a green status indicator, then the assignment has an assessment published status and the student may view the instructor's assessment.

Submit a Course Assignment

Submit an Attachment or LiveText Document

To submit file attachments or LiveText documents to a course assignment:

1. Log into your student LiveText account.
2. Locate the appropriate assignment on your Dashboard. If the assignment is "Not Submitted" then you may submit work to the assignment.

Note: If you are having difficulty locating the appropriate assignment, you may wish to filter your posted assignments by term and/or course. These dropdown boxes are located toward the upper right of your posted assignments.

Withdraw a Course Assignment

If an assignment is “Awaiting Assessment” then you may not submit work to the assignment. You may wish to withdraw the assignment; when you withdraw your last submission, you are un-submitting or taking back what you last sent to your instructor for that assignment. If you are able to do this successfully, you will then be able to resubmit your work for the assignment. You may withdraw your last submission for an assignment while all of the following are true:

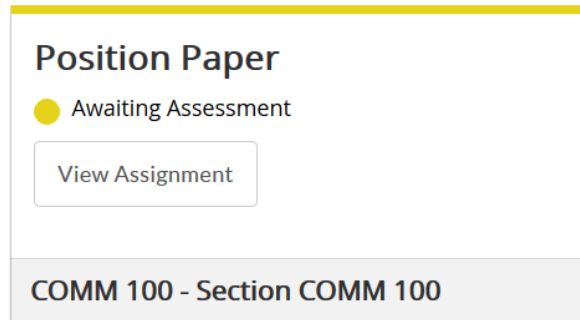

- Your instructor has setup the assignment to allow you to withdraw your last submission.

Note: It's possible for the instructor to set up the assignment in such a way that you cannot withdraw your submissions.

- The assignment due date has not yet passed.
- The instructor has not yet begun an assessment for your last submission.

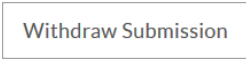

To withdraw a course assignment:

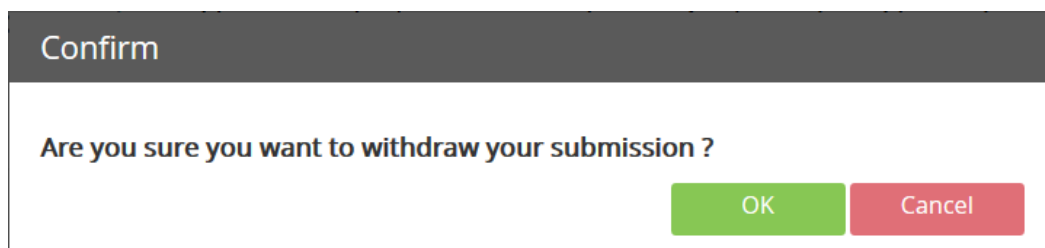

1. Log into a student LiveText account.
2. Locate the appropriate assignment on your Dashboard.

Note: If you are having difficulty locating the appropriate assignment, you may wish to filter your posted assignments by term and/or course. These dropdown boxes are located toward the upper right of your posted assignments.

3. Click on the corresponding  button.
4. Click on the  button which is located under Assignment Submission to withdraw the submission for this assignment.
5. In the confirmation dialog which appears, click the  button to proceed.

6. If the submission has successfully been withdrawn the following message will be displayed:

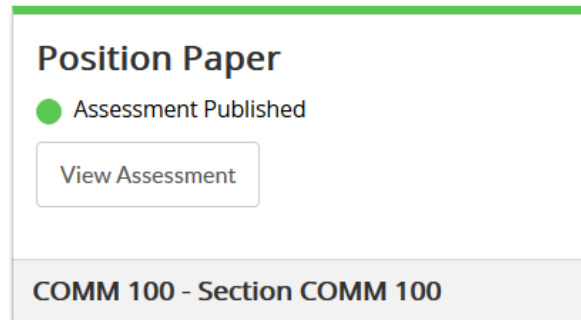

You have withdrawn your submission. This submission is no longer available for assessment.

This indicates that you are now able to resubmit work for the assignment.

View a Completed Assessment

To view an assessment:

1. Log into your student LiveText account.
2. Locate the assignment which has a completed assessment on the Dashboard. If the assignment displays the text “Assessment Published” then an assessment has been completed for that assignment.

3. Once you have located the assignment, click on the corresponding, click on the corresponding  button.
4. If the assessor has provided a Grade for the assignment it will be listed toward the upper left side of the page.
