

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Office: Social Science 103, 537-6224

Faculty: William DuBois, BC Franson

Department: Social Science

The Criminal Justice curriculum builds on a Sociology foundation to give students a broad understanding of social deviance and contemporary criminal justice. Through multidisciplinary studies, students learn about the origins, development, and current conditions of criminal justice systems in the U.S. and in other cultures. This knowledge increases students' understanding of ways society identifies and reacts to deviant behavior in all forms. The Criminal Justice curriculum complements the Sociology curriculum, and a limited amount of coursework may be applied to satisfying requirements for the Sociology major.

NOTE: Students who wish to major in Sociology and minor in Criminal Justice are required to complete the Sociology core courses (25 credits) and five electives (15 credits) for the Sociology major in addition to the above minor. Students may count SOCI 244 Sociology of Deviant Behavior, as one of the five electives for the major. They may also count SOCI 331 Minorities in American Society as one of the five electives for the major. Together, the total number of credits for a Sociology major and a Criminal Justice minor ranges from 61 to 67 credits. Students with other majors complete the minor as shown above.

Bachelor of Applied Science: Law Enforcement Administration (42 credits)

The B.A.S. degree is built on a "2+2" platform. During the first two years (64 credits), a student completes an Associate of Applied Science (A.A.S.) degree in Law Enforcement Administration. In the final two years (64 credits) of SMSU's B.A.S. program, a student takes a 42-semester credit major (described below) in Law Enforcement Administration, and 22 semester credit hours (SCH) of general education and related courses. A large number of the courses in this program will be available via the Internet.

To earn the B.A.S. in Law Enforcement Administration, a student will:

1. Complete the degree requirements for an A.A.S. degree in Law Enforcement.
2. Consult with SMSU faculty advisor, and then take 22 additional SCH of courses from the Liberal Arts Curriculum/Minnesota Transfer Curriculum.
3. Meet the graduation requirements of Southwest Minnesota State University.
4. Complete the 42-credit major in Law Enforcement Administration as outlined below.

Effective 07/01/09

SOCIOLOGY AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE COURSES (SOCI)

SOCI 101 (LAC, D) Introduction to Sociology (3 credits)

A survey of basic concepts and research areas in sociology, including sociology origins, major theoretical perspectives, research methods, culture, social structure, socialization, group processes, formal organizations, deviance and social control, stratification, racial/ethnic and gender inequality, social institutions, demography, collective behavior, and social change.

SOCI 102 (LAC, R, S) Introduction to Sociology: Rural and Regional Perspective (3 credits)

A survey of basic concepts and research areas in sociology, including sociology origins, major theoretical perspectives, research methods, culture, social structure, socialization, group processes, formal organizations, deviance and social control, stratification, racial/ethnic and gender inequality, social institutions, demography, collective behavior, and social change. This course differs from SOCI 101 in that it uses examples from southwestern Minnesota as well as other rural societies and peoples. Further emphasis is placed on the social problems, community life and culture, and the social fabric of southwestern Minnesota.

SOCI 135 (R) Rural Society (3 credits)

Within the discipline of sociology, the study of rural society gives students the opportunity to understand and appreciate the richness and variety of rural heritage and contemporary rural life. Through understanding of concepts and developing applied research skills, students approach the phenomena of non-urban societies both in the U.S. and around the globe. The course includes consideration of regional, national, and international linkages which affect the rural United States. Focusing on such formative influences as family, religion, education, government, and economy, students learn about past and present rural problems and opportunities in areas close to the SMSU campus; then students consider similar and different realities in several other regions of the United States.

SOCI 161 Relationship Violence: Causes, Consequences, Treatment, and Prevention (1 credit)

This course introduces facts, concepts and theories that provide a foundation for understanding the kinds of violence that may occur regularly in relationships. Topics include: violence in dating relationships and acquaintance rape, partner abuse and rape, child abuse and incest, and elder abuse. Multidisciplinary perspectives provide a broad introductory overview of these issues.

SOCI 200 Social Statistics (4 credits)

This course surveys basic statistical techniques used in the social sciences, including frequency distributions and graphs, the normal curve, tests of significance, correlation, analysis of variance, and multiple regression. The course also covers applications of descriptive and inferential techniques to social data and interpretations of social research outcomes. Prerequisite: MATH 110 or three years of high school math.

SOCI 211 Marriage and Family (3 credits)

The origin of marriage and family in historical and comparative perspective; family diversity in contemporary society; application of theoretical perspectives to family processes; gender roles, courtship, mate selection, married relationships, parenthood, marriage termination, alternatives to marriage, and the future family. Prerequisite: SOCI 101.

SOCI 218 Self and Society (3 credits)

A sociological introduction to social psychology, including a symbolic interactionist understanding of the individual in society, the impact of social conditions and culture on personal development, freedom and control in human behavior, and the human ability to respond to and cause social change. Prerequisite: SOCI 101.

SOCI 220 Social Problems (3 credits)

This course critically analyzes contemporary social problems from historical, structural, and theoretical perspectives. Problems analyzed vary, but all analyses are premised on the sociological understanding that humans are products of their social environments. Theory and research are used to demonstrate that social problems are interrelated and that society creates and perpetuates problems. Prerequisite: SOCI 101.

SOCI 244 Sociology of Deviant Behavior (3 credits)

Consideration of various approaches to the study of deviant behavior; contemporary theories and methods of study; discussion of the ethical issues raised by the study of deviant behavior; the social processes whereby persons and patterns of behavior come to be identified as deviant. Topics of deviance analyzed vary, but theory and research are applied to all areas. Prerequisite: SOCI 101.

SOCI 270 (D, G) Gender Issues (3 credits)

This course introduces theories, research, and current issues related to the gender roles in society. Course content includes various theoretical approaches to the sociological study of gender, historical and cross-cultural comparisons, research findings, policy issues, structural influences, and current change trends.

SOCI 286 Special Topics (1-4 credits)

This course is designed to provide lower-division students with an opportunity to experience a special or experimental curriculum course.

SOCI 314 Sociological Theory (3 credits)

Early modern social thought and the development of sociological theory in the 19th and 20th centuries to the present. Prerequisites: SOCI 101 and one other sociology course.

SOCI 315 Applied Social Research Methods (3 credits)

This introduction to social research applies social research methods to sociology, criminal justice, and social work. Includes analysis of published research along with quantitative and qualitative research methods in investigating social issues, program evaluation, practice evaluation, policy analysis, and needs assessment. Prerequisites: SOCI 101, 200, and 314, or senior standing.

SOCI 318 Forces for Social Change (3 credits)

Changing technology, collective behavior, reform and revolution; causes and consequences of social change, creative and destructive consequences of changing social patterns; and the relevance of history to social process. Prerequisites: SOCI 101 and one other sociology course.

SOCI 331 (D) Minorities in American Society (3 credits)

Causes and consequences of prejudice, discrimination, and segregation; relationships of ethnic, racial, and religious minorities to dominant categories in the United States; and remedial programs to reduce racial, ethnic, and religious tensions. Prerequisite: SOCI 101.

SOCI 344 Criminology (3 credits)

Explanation and critical analysis of criminology theory. Also, the course examines major types of crimes, victims, and criminal behavior in the contemporary United States. Topics include definitions; incidence and trends in criminal behavior; roles of police and judicial personnel; and justifications for punishment. Prerequisite: SOCI 144.

SOCI 354 The Holocaust, Genocide, and Human Rights (3 credits)

A survey of sociological, psychological, historical, and other dimensions of the Holocaust and other cases of genocide and genocidal killing during the 20th century. The human rights movement as an attempt to prevent and resist genocide will be examined. Prerequisite: junior or senior standing, or consent of instructor.

SOCI 415 Formal Organizations, Bureaucracies, Corporations (3 credits)

Analysis of major types of formal organizations in contemporary complex societies. Theory and research results applicable to the understanding of factories, schools, prisons, hospitals, churches, voluntary associations, etc. Prerequisite: SOCI 101.

SOCI 420 Sociology of Work (3 credits)

This course familiarizes students with sociological concepts and research related to work. Issues include such topics as alienation, job satisfaction, control over the workplace, changing work conditions, employment and wage inequalities, and conflict between work and family. Prerequisite: SOCI 101.

SOCI 435 Rural Development (3 credits)

A critical analysis of research goals and methods currently applied to rural development; review and analysis of the future of small rural communities; and the benefits and costs of rural industrialization and its full social consequences. A major content requirement is a research paper. Prerequisite: one sociology or history course from the Rural Studies course list (See Core Curriculum section.)

SOCI 440 Human Communities: Structure and Change (3 credits)

Sociological analysis of community structure, community development, and change. Focus on grassroots movements and community organizing. Critiques of community planning will be reviewed. Consideration of applicability of community development in less developed countries to North America. Prerequisite: SOCI 101, ANTH 116, or consent of instructor.

SOCI 450 Individual Readings (1-3 credits)

Prerequisite: consent of instructor.

SOCI 486 Special Topics (1-4 credits)

This course is designed to provide upper-division students with an opportunity to experience a special or experimental curriculum enrichment course.

SOCI 495 Senior Seminar in Sociology (3 credits)

This course is designed to integrate previous sociology study by reviewing basic concepts and theories, reading and discussing selected topics not covered in the regular curriculum, and completing a research project begun in Applied Social Research Methods. Prerequisites: SOCI 315 and consent of instructor.

SOCI 499 Field Experience/Internship (3-12 credits)

Research or internship in an organization or community, defined in individual learning agreements and consisting of combining sociological concepts and theory with one or more of the following: qualitative research, quantitative research, and applied sociology. Prerequisites: Sociology major or minor, Justice Administration major, Anthropology minor, or Criminal Justice minor; and SOCI 315; or consent of instructor.
