Black Student Union

- The Southwest Minnesota State University Black Student Union is an organization that brings together African American students to promote and stimulate interest in Black culture academically, socially, economically, and emotionally. Membership is open to African Americans, persons of African descent, and other persons interested in promoting the purpose of this organization.

Hmong Student Organization

- To proceed as a stronger organization, advocate a fair voice in education, promote recruitment of Hmong students and equal standards of education.

Club Latino

- To expand the knowledge and appreciation of the language, customs, history and cultures of Spanish speaking people through conferences, speakers, fiestas and other events.
Oyate

- To facilitate the goals of a group of individuals that share similar academic, social, and emotional backgrounds with similar aspirations. To create a harmonious environment in which the aforementioned individuals have a vested interest and to aid and eliminate those problems that are relative to Native American and other concerns.

International Student Organization

- To promote international understanding, goodwill, and cultural exchange among international students, American students and the regional community of Southwest Minnesota State University. To promote unity and the general welfare of International students. To assist international students in their efforts to meet their academic needs.