The AOS Living and Learning Community (LLC) is comprised of State funded program that focus on students who meet ONE of the eligibility requirements.

Access, Opportunity & Success (AOS):
First Generation
Student of Color
Low Income (recipient of Pell grant)

The AOS Living and Learning Community (LLC) are located in Selene and Buckingham. Students residing in the LLC will live in a co-ed environment that provides academic and personal support to AOS members. Students will also have 24-hour access to computer labs that are located in Selene. While living among students who are striving for similar goals, members will have the opportunity to exercise their leadership capabilities by co-developing programs and activities with AOS staff. House members will be required to participate in meetings and activities that promote academic success.

As a member of the house, students will develop lifelong friendships and build a foundation to advance their educational and professional goals.

Benefits for students living in the AOS LLC:

1. A fixed two year housing contract rate
2. A double room as a single room at the same rate of a double with a roommate
