COVID-19 DISCLAIMER

The COVID-19 pandemic is causing a lot of uncertainty in the performing arts. This brochure shares the basic outline of our season, but dates and shows may change as the situation evolves. Friends members will be kept up-to-date on our plans!

2020-21 SEASON

Peter and the Starcatcher

By Rick Elice, with music by Wayne Barker
Based on the Novel by Dave Barry & Ridley Pearson
Currently scheduled for November 2020

Pirates, mermaids, a mysterious trunk, and a desert island—the stuff adventures are made of! With creativity and imagination, a group of versatile actors portray dozens of characters to spin the thrilling tale of an orphan boy on his way to becoming Peter Pan.

Wild Card!

February 2021

We’re keeping our February season slot as a “wild card” option. Due to COVID-19, we may need to postpone Peter and the Starcatcher to these dates, or we may use this slot to bring you an exciting collaboration project with a guest artist, a new virtual work, a creative re-envisioning of live theatre, or something that isn’t even on the horizon yet!

An American House

By Lisa Nanni-Messegee and Todd Messegee

Currently scheduled for April 2021

Familial bonds, innovation, and patriotism span 150 years inside the walls of a single American house. Over time, families move in and out of the home, but the house remains a symbol of perseverance as the country and its people change and evolve through tragedies and triumphs.
