

GOLD

COLLEGE AT SMSU

Providing Opportunities for Adult Lifelong Learning

GOLD College is back on Campus

We will follow all CDC & SMSU guidelines

What is GOLD College?

Study Groups

- Non-credit classes present for two hours, one day a week during a 6-week term
- No grades, tests or attendance
- Topics may include: art, history, computer, current events, music, writing, health or physical well-being

Special Features

- Guest Speakers
- Opening Ceremony
- Educational field trips

Social Activities

- Local tours, museum visits, theatre events, luncheons, and

Fall Kick-Off Event

Wednesday, September 15, 2021
2:15 P.M.

Charter Hall – SMSU Campus

Masks/Vaccinations Encouraged but not required
Schedules and parking permits will be available to pick up

Key Note Speaker begins at 3:00

Is GOLD College for you?

Adults who are looking for lifelong learning opportunities and want to make new social connections.

Individuals who want to explore new interests, continue learning and make new friends.

GOLD College is open to adults whose formal education may have ended early in life, or those who obtained advanced degrees and anyone in between.

Everyone Has a Golden Story

Retired Professor Dr. Ellen Radel, will share the 'magic' of Little Golden Books at 3:00PM in CH217. As an avid collector and passionate speaker, Ellen shares a lifetime of memories and history of the beloved Little Golden Books.

US History and JFK
Assassinations Classes will be offered in Person and over ZOOM

Classes start Sept 20, 2021

REGISTER

TODAY