

New Online Major: Community Psychology and Health Promotion

Description: Community Psychology is an applied and inherently interdisciplinary subfield of Psychology that emphasizes community development, strengthening natural support systems, prevention programming, advocacy, and mental health education. It is well suited for students interested in pursuing graduate studies in community psychology, health psychology mental health counseling, or health promotion. (For more information: APA Division 27 <http://www.scra27.org/who-we-are/>).

Required for degree completion option: Completion of Associate's Degree (A.A. or A.S) in Psychology, Human Service, Health Sciences, and related fields.

Bachelor of Arts: Community Psychology and Health Promotion (Total Credits: 42)

Required Courses: (36 Credits)

Community Psychology Core: (24 Credits)

PSYC 101	General Psychology
PSYC 120	Introduction to Community Psychology	Cr: 2
PSYC 200	Statistics for the Behavioral Sciences	Cr: 3
PSYC 200L	Statistics for the Behavioral Sciences Lab	Cr: 1
PSYC 235	Abnormal Psychology	Cr: 3

PSYC 339 Positive Psychology Cr: 3

PSYC 400 Advanced Applied Psychology (must take twice) Cr: 6

PSYC 440 Advanced Health Psychology Cr: 3

One of the following (Developmental) courses (3 Credits)

PSYC 260 Developmental Psychology Cr: 3

PSYC 341 Child & Adolescent Psychology Cr: 3

PSYC 343 Adult Development & Aging Cr: 3

One of the following (Ethics/Professional Writing) courses (3 Credits)

PHIL 303 Ethical Issues in Professional Life Cr: 3

ENGL 351 Writing in Medical and Health Professions Cr: 3

ENGL 360 Scientific and Technical Writing Cr: 3

One of the following (Health Promotion) courses (3 Credits)

COMM 305 Principles of Health Communication Cr: 3

HLTH 370 Community Health and Health Promotion Cr: 3

EXSC 380 Community & Corporate Wellness & Cr: 3

Health Promotion

One of the following (Diversity) courses (3 Credits)

PSYC 360 Cross Cultural Psychology Cr: 3

SOCI 212 Human Relations Cr: 3

SOCI 331 Racial and Ethnic Relations Cr: 3

SWRK 351 Diverse & At-Risk Populations Cr: 3

HIST 359 African American History Cr: 3

INDS 217 Indigenous Peoples of the Upper Midwest Cr: 3

Electives: (6 Credits)

Choose from courses above or those on the following list:

PSYC XXX	Any psychology course	Cr1-3
JUAD 385	Crime, Race, Poverty & Social Policy	Cr: 3
SOCI 220	Social Problems	Cr: 3
SOCI 310	Sociology of Aging	Cr: 3
SWRK 280	Substance Use and Addictive Behaviors	Cr: 3
POL 340	Public Policy and Administration	Cr: 3
MGMT 333	Conflict Resolution	Cr: 3
MGMT 454	Labor Relations	Cr: 3
MGMT 450	Diversity Management	Cr: 3
PE 300	Recreation Diversity & Leadership	Cr: 3
PE 360	Intro to Recreation, Parks, and Community Education	Cr: 3
COMM 260	Media Writing	Cr:3