"I Have a Dream" Reflection Space in SC 235

Available January 12-23 Monday - Friday from 9:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

MLK's "I Have a Dream" speech, as well as other notable speeches given in the 1960s related to the Civil Rights Movement will be available for listening and reflection. Short questions and prompts will be around the space to encourage participants to leave their reflections for others to see. Visitors are welcome to stop in and reflect as frequently as they like. Faculty are encouraged to bring their classes to the space.
