✓ Keep informed of SMSU news and happenings by making SMSU Today your homepage: www.smsu.edu/today

✓ Become involved with at least one student activity, club, or intramural sport.

✓ Build a relationship with your academic advisor and meet multiple times throughout the semester (not just on Advising Day).

✓ Make friends in class and form study groups outside of class.

✓ Review your syllabus to understand class expectations and deadlines.

✓ Opt in to receive text messages from SMSU in e-services.

✓ Know when your professors have open office hour times. This is a great way to get the individualized help you deserve.

✓ Eat healthy, get 8 hours of sleep a night, and exercise for ½ hour at least 3-5 times a week.

✓ Spend two hours outside of class studying for every hour in class.

✓ Surround yourself with positive role models and friends.

✓ Take notes that will help you understand the material that is being taught.

✓ Ask questions in class if you are confused or need something clarified. Your professor is there to teach you and you are there to learn.

✓ Set personal and educational goals for yourself each semester.

✓ Seek help from campus resources if you need assistance with your academic or personal life. Support services can be found in the Resource Guide for Mustang Success: www.smsu.edu/go/success

✓ Learn how to make use of all the resources the McFarland Library has to offer. Questions? Ask a Reference Librarian when you are in the library or through email, text, phone or chat.
