

Request for STEM OPT Extension

To request the OPT STEM Extension I-20 you must submit to SMSU International Student Services the following:

- 1) Request for STEM OPT Extension form and required documents
- 2) Completed Data Validation Report
- 4) USCIS form I-983 (Training Plan) signed and completed

Please Note:

If you do not submit all completed forms an advisor will not issue the I-20 for your OPT extension.

Students Reporting Requirements:

- You are required to update SMSU International Services of your name, address, employer's name and address, and any period of unemployment within 10 business days from any change. Even if there are no changes, you are required to submit the Data Validation Report once every six months.
- In addition, the employer with whom you are seeking the 24-month OPT extension, must be registered in E-Verify. Accordingly, you must provide the employer's E-Verify Company Identification Number required by law.
- Within 12 month of STEM OPT Start Date students and employer must complete and submit "Evaluation" of Student's portion of form I-983 to our office; at end of OPT STEM student again must submit a second final assessment form I-983. Student must submit a new Form I-983 within 10 days of starting new employment.
- Students must also submit material changes to each form I-983 to SMSU International Student Services.
- Students must report the termination of the employment within 10 day of the event.
